Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3,6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fuhrmann et al. (5,002,576).

With respect to claims 1-3,6-8, Fuhrmann et al discloses a kit comprising a spacer with expanding spikes; as best seen in FIG.1, and a quantity of a precursor of a bio-compatible elastic material (2); as set forth in column 2, lines 51-67, column 3, lines 1-25, as best seen in FIGS.1-4.

Claims 1-3,6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Main et al (4,932,975).

With respect to claims 1-3,6-8, Main et al discloses a kit comprising a spacer (10) with expanding spikes; as best seen in FIG.1, and a quantity of a precursor of a bio-compatible elastic material; as set forth in column 3, lines 45-67, column 4, lines 1-15; and as best seen in FIGS.1-8.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4,5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over main et al (4,932,975) in view of Brett (6,126,689).

With respect to claims 4,5, it is noted that Main did not teach of a spacer with holes, as claimed by applicant. However, in a similar art, Brett evidences the use of an expandable spacer with holes so that bone material can be inserted in the spacer and aid in the fusion of the adjacent vertebrae.

Therefore, given the teaching of Brett, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the device of Main, as taught by Brett so that bone material can be inserted in the spacer and aid in the fusion of the adjacent vertebrae.

Response to Amendment

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-8 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
